SOCIALLY EMBEDDED

OPEN-WALLED

Competency-Based

- Knowledge: Theoretical or practical understanding of something (content knowledge)
- Skills: The capacities needed to apply knowledge effectively in producing specific results, including the skills to acquire additional knowledge regarding matters at hand.
- Dispositions: The behaviors and ways of being needed for a person to apply knowledge effectively in the circumstances of life, both current and future.

Personalized, Relevant, and Contextualized

Personalized: Learning experience is made responsive to the learners' individual needs and strengths

Relevant: Learning experience is applicable to the learner's real-world challenges (college, career, life)

Contextualized: Learning is embedded within a context for each learner. Meaningful and engaging.

Learner Agency

- Student Voice/Student Choice
